

Q10141704 - What's difference between Archttp and ArcSAP?

Archttp is a proxy software which allows you to login the firmware buildin web browser manager console. Please make sure that Areca virtual device had been properly installed in Windows device manager. Archttp only works if the virtual device is installed.

ArcSAP is a standalone manage software utility.

Unique solution ID: #1676

Author: Simone

Last update: 2022-01-06 08:18